AT the Court at St. James's, the 14th Day of July, 1762,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the 2d of April last, to direct, That the Bounties of Six Pounds for every able Seaman, and of Three Pounds for every ordinary Seaman, should continue to be paid to every such able and ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Eighteen Years, who should, on or before the 31st Day of May last, voluntarily enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships, or the Chief Officers on Board such Tenders as should be employed for raising Men for the Service of His Majesty's Royal Navy: And also that the Bounty of Thirty Shillings should be continued to be paid to every able bodied Landman not above the Age of Thirty Five, nor under the Age of Eighteen Years, who should, on or before the said 31st Day of May last, voluntarily enter themselves in like Manner to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and that a Reward of Five Pounds for every able, and of Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every ordinary Seaman, should continue to be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who may secret themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's said Service, on or before the said Thirty-first Day of May last. — And whereas the Time limited for paying the said Bounties and Rewards hath been continued and extended to the 31st of this Instant July; And it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the same should be continued for some Time longer; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Rewards, be prolonged and extended from the said 31st Day of this Instant July, to the 30th Day of September next. And that the said Bounties and Rewards be paid in the Manner directed by His Majesty's aforementioned Order in Council of the 2d of April last. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

W. Sharpe.

St. James's, August 31.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Exeter, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable William Pitt, Esq;: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Exeter, in Chamber assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

THE happy Accomplishment of your Peoples Hopes and Wishes, in the safe Delivery of our most gracious Queen, and the Birth of an Heir Apparent to your Crown, emboldens us, your ever faithful and loyal Subjects, to lay hold of this most grateful and favourable Opportunity, of approaching your Throne with our most dutiful Congratulations, and of offering up this imperfect, but unfeigned, Expression of our most affectionate, zealous, and unalterable Attachment to your Royal Person and Family.

We are too deeply sensible of the distinguished Happiness we enjoy, under your Majesty's auspicious and truly Patriot Government; not to contemplate, with the most delightful Exultation, the Earnest of our future Felicity, this pleasing Prospect, which opens itself before us, of your Majesty's Royal Virtues, and those National Blessings which are their natural Concomitants, transmitted to future Generations.

May this precious Pledge of the Divine Favour be happily preserved to us! May your Majesty's Throne be still more and more strengthened, by the gradually increasing Support of a numerous Progeny, descended from your Majesty and your Royal Consort! May they long, very long, enjoy the inestimable Advantages of being enlightened by your Wisdom, and instructed by your Example! May the Blessings of your Reign be perpetuated through an illustrious Succession of your Royal Lineage to the latest Posterity! These are the ardent Prayers which we shall continually offer up to the Supreme Dispenser of all Good, while at the same Time it will be our Study, and the invariable Rule of our Conduct, to make your Majesty every Return in our Power, of Duty, Loyalty, Zeal and Gratitude, and to contribute our utmost Endeavours, as far as our narrow Sphere extends, to make your Majesty's Reign as easy to yourself, as it is universally felt and acknowledged to be glorious and beneficial to your People.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the Corporation and Borough of Richmond in the County of York, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Grenville, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council, in Common Council assembled, of

of the Corporation and Borough of Richmond in the County of York.

May it please your Majesty,

TO permit us, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of your ancient and loyal Corporation and Borough of Richmond in the County of York, in Common Council assembled, to approach your Royal Presence with joyful Hearts, to congratulate your Majesty on the late happy Delivery of the Queen, and the Increase of your Royal Family by the Birth of a Prince.

We are thankful to Providence for this National Blessing, and find our Joy greatly heightened by the auspicious Day which gave him Birth, and has been so signal in your Illustrious House in preserving the Liberty of these Nations, and continuing that Commerce, Opulence and Greatness, which has made your Majesty's happy Subjects the Envy and Admiration of the wondering Nations around us.

May the Almighty, in His great Goodness, restore to perfect Health your Royal Consort, and give many happy Years to the Royal Infant.

May he be blessed with Greatness of Mind to govern a generous, free and brave People, and be the Protector of the happy Constitution of these Realms. May he ever be mindful of the noble Example of his Illustrious Parents; and long, very long, may his high Birth be viewed by your Majesty and your much admired Consort, greatly to improve in Princely Virtues, and Magnanimity of Mind. And when the Fulness of Time shall come, may he, to his latest Days, have the Affection of his Subjects, and, by every Action of his Life, be deservedly (as your Majesty) the Delight of Mankind.

Given under our Common Seal, this Twentieth Day of August, One thousand seven hundred and sixty two.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the City of Winchester, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable Lord Harry Powlett, and Henry Penton, jun. Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting; Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most gracious Sovereign,

THE Mayor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the City of Winchester beg Leave to approach your Majesty on the present propitious Occasion, and with joyful Hearts to congratulate your Majesty upon the Birth of a Prince, and on the safe and happy Delivery of our most gracious Queen: Events which, under the Providence of God, and your Majesty's wise and prudent Council, afford us the most pleasing Prospect of a long Continuance of National Happiness.

Your loyal and faithful Citizens of this ancient City rejoice exceedingly, participating in every Circumstance of Joy and Satisfaction to your Majesty.

May your Majesty's Domestick Comfort, from this Increase of your Royal Family, exceed your utmost Expectations; and may the Hand of Providence so interpose in forming his Princely Mind, that, in one Course of Time, he may become the Glory and Honour of Great Britain.

In Testimony whereof, we have caused our Common Seal to be hereunto affixed, the Twenty First Day of August, in the Second Year of your Majesty's happy Reign over us.

The following Address of the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, has been presented to His Majesty by Alexander Powell, Esq; Deputy Recorder of Salisbury, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to testify our Share in the general Joy, by congratulating your Sacred Majesty on the safe Delivery of our gracious Queen; and the signal Blessing, vouchsafed by the Almighty, to your Majesty, and your Kingdoms, in the Birth of a Prince, whose Nativity is rendered more auspicious and distinguished, by happening on the ever memorable Day, on which your Royal Ancestor, of glorious Memory, ascended the British Throne.

This happy Increase of your Majesty's Family we esteem an additional Security to our Religious and Civil Rights; fully convinced that, under your Majesty, and your August House, we, and our Posterity, shall securely enjoy the inestimable Privileges of Free-born Britons.

Long may your Majesty, and your Royal Consort, live: Long, Sir, may you reign over a free, flourishing, and united People: And when, full of Years, and full of Glory, the Almighty shall call you to a Crown Immortal, may this young Prince, formed to Virtue, and Religion, by the Example of His Illustrious Parents, govern these loyal and happy Kingdoms with His Father's Wisdom, Justice, and Humanity.

Given under the Seal of our Corporation, the Nineteenth Day of August, in the Second Year of your Majesty's Reign.

Whitehall, August 31.

The King has been pleased to grant unto Sir Onesiphorus Paul, of Woodchester in the County of Gloucester, Knight, and his Heirs Male, the Dignity of a Baronet of the Kingdom of Great Britain.
